Football site gets go-ahead

PLANS to create a £2 million community football centre in Haverhill have been approved, despite objections from a local council ward member who branded the project “a waste of Council Tax payers’ money.”

St Edmundsbury Borough Council was granted consent by its development control committee to build a single storey clubhouse and community facility with a football ground on land at Chalkstone Way, Haverhill.

The new facility will also feature a training pitch and three community pitches, a seated spectator stand and two dugouts. It will provide a new home for Haverhill Rovers, but also include extensive football and social facilities for the whole community.

But Cllr Gordon Cox, who lives only 100 metres from the site, raised a long list of objections to the plan, including the loss of designated public open space, possible loss of public footpaths, loss of community football pitches, insufficient public consultation, and noise and traffic disruption.

He said: “Chalkstone Playing Fields in their entirety are there for the freedom of use as a whole for the community, and almost all for free, apart from the contributions received via Council Tax.

“The fields are used by joggers, dog walkers, general strollers, local children having a kick about or playing rounders, all in a non-claustrophobic space.

“This application will overshadow their enjoyment of their playing field. Residents are entitled to enjoy free movement on the whole site, with no restriction and without payment.”

Cllr Cox said there was sufficient room to upgrade the existing facilities at Haverhill Rovers’ Hamlet Croft ground. Failing that, he argued the new facility should be sited on the edge of the Puddlebrook playing field, which would be further away from residential properties.

“On behalf of myself and other residents that I represent I strongly object to this application. We don’t want it here and we want the application refused,” he told fellow councillors.

Five letters of objection were received from residents in the area who had concerns about late night noise and anti-social behaviour, parking problems and litter.

One said: “Having a football ground in close proximity to our houses would ruin this part of town.”

A report to councillors said the main pitch was sited 65 metres away from the closest house to minimise disturbance.

Conditions would restrict use of floodlights and noise from the community facility so it would not have an adverse effect on residential amenity, or anti-social behaviour.

The plan to move Haverhill Rovers had the support of the Football Foundation, who had said the Hamlet Croft ground was not suitable for future football development because of restrictions at the site.

Calendar launch to help appeal

STUNNING images of the local area have been captured in a calendar produced especially for our Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal.

George Impey, a professional photographer, has captured countryside scenes and donated his services free of charge in gratitude for the care given to his late father-in-law, Sidney Horler, before his death in September. Businessman Geoff Carter, of Suffolk Insurance, has found other companies in the town willing to sponsor each of the 12 pages of the calendar, so that every penny raised by selling the 1,000 calendars printed will go to the Hospice Appeal.

Specialised Print in Station Road printed the calendar and it will be on sale for £6.95 a copy.

The first opportunity to buy it will be at the St Nicholas Christmas Fayre at the Methodist Church on Saturday from 10.30am to 1pm.

All proceeds from the event will go to our Hospice at Home Appeal – which since its launch in February is already close to reaching £30,000 of its £40,000 target to pay for patients in the Haverhill area to receive services in their own homes rather than having to travel to the hospice in Bury St Edmunds.

George said: "Having seen what a fantastic and inspirational group of individuals who work in the Hospice are (and West Suffolk Hospital), I wanted to show my gratitude by raising funds. Since I am a photographer by trade I thought what better way to achieve this than by producing a set of original images on the local area to publicise their work."

Geoff said he planned to sell copies in his High Street offices during the late-night shopping event on Friday, December 5.

He said: "People readily came forward to provide the sponsorship so that all the money would go to the hospice appeal. I have visited several people there and the volunteers are wonderful. By buying the calendar that care can be brought to people in this area in their own homes."

The calendar will be on sale at the Weekly News offices in Queen Street, the St Nicholas Hospice shop in the High Street and Specialised Print in Station Road. Images can be viewed at www.georgeimpeyphotographer.co.uk

Circle votes to help a worthwhile cause

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

CASH collected by Haverhill Ladies Circle members taking a charity Christmas sleigh round the town has been handed over to give a £500 boost to our Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal.

Della Morris, current chairman of the group, visited the Weekly News office in Queen Street to present a cheque to the hospice fundraiser Ian Norris.

The cash was raised at the sleigh event and other fundraising activities during the year of office of Mrs Morris's predecessor Sara Meakin.

Mrs Morris said members were very happy to support the appeal.

She added: "Ladies Circle does support Cancer Research as a national charity but our policy is that the money is raised locally so we like to give it to local charities. There are only eight of us at present so we were pleased to have raised so much.

"We have given money to the hospice before, but we felt the Hospice at Home Appeal was a very worthwhile charity that we really wanted to support. We all voted in favour of it."

Ian Norris said: "It is wonderful that a local group has got involved in a good local charity. It is nice that they have chosen to give us some of the money they have worked so hard to raise and we are very grateful."

Ladies Circle, formerly for the wives of Round Table members, is now open to anyone aged 18 to 45 and includes social events and charity fundraising. The group meets on the first and third Thursdays of the month and anyone interested in joining should call (01440) 714232.

■ Wickhambrook Charity fundraisers, who have already raised more than £2,000 for our appeal, are now selling tickets for their New Year's Eve dance, which will also boost the fund.

They have sold 100 tickets for the event which will feature music from In the Groove, backing group for singer Brian Poole, and a disco.

The evening starts at 8pm, at Wickhambrook Memorial Social Centre. There will be a licensed bar and prizes on offer in the raffle.

Tickets are £15, available by calling (01440) 820757, 820481, or 820155.

Two charged

TWO men have been charged with aggravated burglary and one of them with making threats to kill after an incident in Haverhill.

The incident happened at a property on Leather Lane on Monday, October 6.

Sami M'Barki, 24, of Connaught Road, Haverhill, has been charged with making threats to kill and possession of an offensive weapon.

Lee Holland, 26, of Wellington Terrace in Haverhill has also been charged with burglary. Both are due to appear before Bury St Edmunds Magistrates Court on Tuesday, November 18.

A 20-year-old male, also arrested in connection with this incident, has had his bail cancelled and no further action will be taken against him.

Teen assaulted

A 14-YEAR-OLD boy was assaulted and knocked to the ground while walking near an alleyway in Haverhill last Friday night.

The incident happened at Lordscroft Lane at around 8.50pm when the attacker came out of an alleyway and assaulted the boy, knocking him to the floor. The boy suffered bruising.

The attacker is described as white, around 17 years old, of medium build, 6ft tall, and wearing a black hooded top, a black bandana, black trainers and two sovereign rings on his right hand.

Anyone with information about the attack should call Pc Cheryl Claydon at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100.

Smashed glass

TWO incidents of criminal damage at Wickhambrook on Tuesday, November 4, are being linked by police.

The rear windscreen was smashed on a blue Renault Laguna parked on a driveway at Moor Green Close at around 10.30pm. Any information about this incident should be given to Pc Ryan Harris at Clare police on (01284) 774100.

At Nunmery Green, at around 10.40pm, glass in a phone box was smashed. Sgt Neil Ireland, at the St Edmundsbury Rural South Safer Neighbourhood Team, would like to hear from anyone with any information on (01284) 774100.

How can you help us hit the £40,000 target?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help - so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fundraising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal. Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible. If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause? A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842. An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Drug driver found guilty

A WOMAN driver has been convicted of causing the death of a grandfather through her careless driving while under the influence of drugs.

Helen Nunn, of Ditton Fields, Cambridge, was driving a Toyota MR2 involved in a four-vehicle smash on December 3 in which Donald McCallum, a pensioner from Dartford, Kent, died.

The accident occurred on the northbound A11 close to Stumps Cross, Great Chesterford, as Mr McCallum was travelling to visit his family in Haverhill.

Nunn, 41, had denied being unfit to drive after taking amphetamines, but was convicted by a unanimous verdict by a jury at Cambridge Crown Court, after a five-day trial which concluded on Monday.

Nunn's case was adjourned for pre-sentence reports to be prepared and an interim driving ban has been imposed until she returns to court for sentencing by trial judge Jonathan Haward during the two weeks commencing Monday, December 8.

The court heard that Mr McCallum had collided with the crash barrier close to the A505 slip road on the A11 and as he was inspecting the damage to his vehicle the Toyota driver by Nunn clipped his vehicle and then hit him.

Three cars and a lorry had managed to drive around Mr McCallum and his car before the fatal collision.

It's a wrap! Church's treats for children

CHILDREN in Serbia will be receiving some extra gifts this Christmas thanks to a local church.

The West End Congregational Church, in Withersfield Road, Haverhill, is again taking part in the annual Samaritans Shoebox Appeal.

Already 85 boxes have been covered in Christmas paper and filled with small gifts such as sweets, books, toys, puzzles, pens, paper, soap, toothpaste and flannels.

Last year, the church sent off 130 boxes to Serbia and it hopes to match that number this year.

Anyone who would like to support the effort can drop off filled shoe boxes or items to put into them at the church. Leaflets providing more details of the scheme are also available.

War-themed toys, crisps and biscuits should not be included in the boxes.

Council's got it covered

AN EXTRA bus shelter is on its way to Millfields Way in Haverhill.

Haverhill Town Council's community first committee agreed to provided the shelter following a request from residents to upgrade the existing stop by the junction with Kestrel Way.

The council allocated £3,500 in its current year's budget for bus shelters.

Dad's fury over store's book gift to daughter

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A FURIOUS dad is demanding an apology from a supermarket chain after his eight-year-old daughter was given a booklet containing sexual drawings and encouraging her to meet strangers.

Andrew Dodd heard his daughter giggling with friends while looking at the book after a school visit to Sainsbury's with a group of about 50 pupils.

He discovered the book they were looking at contained highly suggestive drawings of a couple in various positions saving water by "bathing with a friend".

The book, entitled How to Change the World for £5, also suggested talking to strangers, giving your telephone number to five people in the street, as well as doing something different like swimming in a pond, streaking, or shaving something off.

Mr Dodd, of Haverhill,

said: "The children were doing a project on Fairtrade and the book did contain information about things like recycling plastic bags as well.

"I was furious. I did not find the book in itself offensive, it was just inappropriate to give to children.

"Sainsbury's have obviously not given any guidance to their staff or possibly no one has even read it. My daughter's teacher was horrified and took the book back. I think they should apologise."

The Burton End Primary School pupils were accidentally given the book at Sainsbury's in Haverhill.

Fay Trussler, headteacher

at Burton End School, said: "I have spoken to staff involved and it was pointed out the book was not age appropriate for the children.

"I think it was unfortunate."

A spokesman for the company We Are What We Do, which produced the book, said it had been aimed at an adult market.

The company does produce a book for children, Teach Your Granny to Text, which had been sent to primary schools across the UK.

A spokesman for Sainsbury's said the books had been given to store staff by head office as a gift, because it mentioned the store's green activities, and spare copies had been handed out to the visitors.

He said: "They were never intended to be given to children, but it seems a mistake was made. We apologise and we would like to offer to exchange the books for the children's version, Teach your Granny to Text, if the youngsters would like to bring them back."

Mr Dodd said he was satisfied with the explanation and would be telling other parents about the offer to exchange the books for the children's version.

Glittering new attractions for festive lights switch-on

THE run-up to Christmas in Haverhill just got bigger and brighter – with a whole week-end of celebrations around this year's festive lights switch-on.

Family Christmas Night has been held in Haverhill for more than 20 years and has grown to be the major outdoor annual event, attracting thousands to the town centre.

Since 1996 Haverhill Town Council has been heavily involved organising the fireworks finale and more recently taking on the running of the whole evening.

This year, after consultation with local traders and suggestions from the public, the council is promoting The Great Big Christmas Weekend – three days of activities that will incorporate the Christmas lights switch-on, Family Christmas Night, a fireworks display plus new events including a Christmas craft fair and a town centre continental and gourmet market.

On Friday, December 5, Family Christmas Night will include the usual favourites of late-night shopping, charity stalls, fairground rides and festive entertainment but will also feature the Christmas lights switch-on. This year's display is brand new and will brighten up both the town centre and the route to the new Cineworld Leisure Complex.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

There will also be a craft fair in the Arts Centre from 5.30pm-8.30pm.

The fair will remain in the centre on Saturday, December 6, as seasonal entertainment and rides continue in the town centre. The day will finish with the stunning free fireworks finale on the recreation ground at an earlier time of 6.30pm.

On Sunday, December 7, parts of the High Street and Queen Street will host a continental and gourmet market where the emphasis will be on fine foods including French sausages and cheeses, mulled wine, oysters, chocolate, local produce and much more.

The day will wrap up with a family concert by Haverhill Silver Band at the Arts Centre at 4pm.

Haverhill Town Council's arts and leisure manager, Nick Keeble, said "While Family Christmas Night has been highly successful over the past few years, there have been suggestions by traders and attendees regarding extending and changing the event. For 2008, we are making some alterations to see how it goes.

"The fireworks display has been moved to the Saturday earlier in the evening to enable more families to attend."

■ SEASONAL SPARKLE . . . the town council promises even more festive fun. Picture: Keith Heppell 377800.

He added: "It is always a difficult decision to change a successful event but the town council see The Great Big Christmas Weekend as an opportunity to further promote what the town has to offer while providing family friendly entertainment and chances for Haverhill groups to join in the celebrations."

A leaflet promoting the weekend and other events during the Christmas period will be available from the council in the next few weeks.

Bid to remove substation

A COUNCIL has welcomed plans for a new football facility in its town but wants an old electricity substation which it says is an eyesore to be removed.

Members of Haverhill Town Council's planning committee approved of the plan for a single storey clubhouse, community changing rooms a football ground, pitches and a stand at Chalkstone Way, Haverhill.

However, councillors asked that the substation near the site be removed and the area used for car parking or as a play area instead.

House raiders steal laptop

A CAMCORDER, jewellery and a laptop were stolen by thieves who gained entry to a house through an unsecured window at a house in Haverhill.

The burglary happened at Clements Lane between 5pm on Wednesday, November 5, and 6.15pm the next day. Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Carl Brandwood at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

New ways to tackle debt

HAVERHILL Citizens Advice Bureau this month looks at ways to help those in financial difficulties pay off their debts.

Q: I got into very bad debt a few years ago after losing my job and managed to set up a debt management plan with lower payments over a longer period of time. But my financial situation is now increasingly difficult with rising fuel and food prices. What should I do?

A: It sounds as if it's time to re-assess your disposable income and see if there are any alternative options available which might give you some light at the end of the tunnel. The law is changing soon so options which might not have been around when you first entered into your debt management plan might now be available. A CAB adviser can do a full assessment which will take account of all your circumstances. Some of the options for you could be:

- Individual Voluntary Arrangement (IVA): a legally binding agreement with your creditors to pay a proportion of your debts over a set period, often five years. You must have enough disposable income and/or assets available in order to cover both an insolvency practitioner's costs and still leave some money available for creditors.
- Bankruptcy: a court order which declares you are unable to pay your debts and protects you from enforcement action by your creditors. At the end of your bankruptcy (usually one year, but it can be less) your debts will be discharged and you will be able to make a fresh start.

■ Administration Order: another form of court order currently only available to people with total maximum debts of £5,000, plus a court judgment. You pay a set amount each month into the scheme and the court distributes the money to all the creditors included in it. The scheme can last until you have paid off all your debts, or you can ask the court to stop it after, say, three years.

■ Debt Relief Order: similar to bankruptcy, these orders are aimed at giving people who have debts of less than £15,000, assets of less than £300 and surplus income of less than £50 per month relief from paying their debts. Once the order is made your creditors cannot take any action against you and, if your situation does not change, your debts will be written off after one year. This becomes an option from April 2009.

One of these options may suit your needs better than your current arrangement. A CAB debt adviser will be able to help you.

Go to www.adviceguide.org.uk for more information and contact details.

Haverhill CAB can be found at the Centre for Voluntary Agencies, in Lower Downs Slade, Haverhill, CB9 9HB. ## Getting in the groove of sultry salsa style ■ SMOOTH MOVES . . . dance teacher Terry Lewis leads the class through a few sultry moves at the salsa workshop. Picture: Warren Gunn 519953.

SOME sultry salsa lessons attracted plenty of potential dancers at the weekend. Dance East staged the introductory salsa workshop, led by the Salsa Chillout, group at Haverhill Arts Centre last Saturday morning – and it proved so popular that extra tickets had to be provided to accommodate all 22 people wanting to take part, including two men. The two-hour session covered the basics of the lively style of dancing, recently demonstrated by BBC political correspondent John Sargent on the television show, Strictly Come Dancing. Haverhill Town Council work with Dance East to provide a variety of dance classes through the year and more will be on offer next March. For details of future events at the centre visit www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

Sentencing options open for man on incite charge

A 42-YEAR-OLD man has admitted encouraging two young girls to commit an indecent act.

Peter Dagger was due to stand trial at Ipswich Crown Court last week but changed his plea to guilty at the last minute.

Dagger, of White Caville, Haverhill, pleaded guilty to two offences of inciting a child in sexual activity between March 15 and May 15. The two girls involved, both aged 14, cannot be identified for legal reasons.

The court heard that Dagger was also pleading guilty to a third charge of sexual activity with a girl aged under 16. That offence was committed between March 15 and April 3.

Judge Neil McKittrick ordered the preparation of a pre-sentence report by the Probation Service, including addressing the issue of whether Dagger was considered to be dangerous.

Dagger was ordered to sign the Sex Offenders Register before he was led from the dock. Dagger was told that he would continue to be remanded in custody until his next court appearance.

The judge warned Dagger that all sentencing options were being kept open when he faces sentence at Ipswich Crown Court in the week commencing December 1.

Raid on garage

TWO lawnmowers and a chainsaw were stolen in a theft from a garage on Stradishall farm.

The burglary happened at Edmunds Hill, on Monday, November 3, when offenders broke into a garage on a farm by forcing a door and stole a red Countax ride-on lawnmower, a Hayter self-propelled lawnmower and a chainsaw. Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Mark Green at Horringer police on (01284) 774100, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Tools taken

MECHANIC'S tools were stolen by thieves who broke into a Haverhill garage by forcing the lock. The burglary happened at Snowdon Court between 9am on Wednesday, November 5 and 9am the following day. Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Matthew Dale at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Deluge on local roads

HEAVY rainfall throughout the day on Monday brought flooding to many Suffolk roads, including the main routes into Haverhill from Cambridge and Bury St Edmunds.

A Suffolk police spokesman said reports had been received of flood water up to six inches deep on the A1307 stretch of road between the roundabout with the illuminated sculpture to the roundabout at Sainsbury's.

There were also reports of flooding near the Fox pub on the A143 at Little Wratting, as well as in Withersfield and Lower Road, Hordon.

Motorists were advised to slow down, take extra care and drive with their lights on.

Search for bike

A TEENAGER who spent three months working at two jobs to earn enough money to buy himself a bike was devastated when it was stolen from a friend's garden.

Ben Fanning, 14, a pupil at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College in Haverhill, paid around £200 for the blue GT BMX bike about a year ago. He paid for it by doing a paper round and working on Haverhill market.

On Monday, October 6, Ben was visiting a friend at Kingfisher Close, Haverhill, and left his bike in the front garden between 5.30pm and 6pm. When he came out to ride it home, the bike had gone.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to PCSO Clare Fuller on (01284) 774100.

Recreating a French icon

AUDIENCE members will be transported back to a 1940s Parisian Cabaret Club for a night with Tina May and her musicians as they play tribute to Edith Piaf at Haverhill Arts Centre. With a voice that is redolent of Piaf but never-the-less all her own, Tina evokes the Little Sparrow through Nor, Je ne Regrette Rien, Milord, La Vie en Rose and all the other classics that made Edith Piaf one of the most enduring icons of the 20th Century. Performing songs in both French and English, May also introduces brief biographical snippets and anecdotes about Piaf so that each number is placed in context.

■ TRIBUTES ... to legendary singer Edith Piaf from award-winning jazz vocalist Tina May.

May is a regular performer at top jazz and arts festivals, as well as in broadcasts with the BBC Big Band. She has toured extensively across Europe and the Far East and has received numerous awards, including a silver medal by The Worshipful Company of Musicians and the vocal jazz award at the BT Jazz Awards. She has performed with Cleo Laine, John Dankworth, and Humphrey Lyttelton and has also collaborated with Rory Bremner in musical and comedy sketches. Tickets for Edith Piaf - A Celebration of a Legend on Saturday, November 29 are £15 and available from the box office on (01440) 714140.

Get hip to sun, surf and local talent at arts centre

COMICAL tales from the Caribbean come to the stage next week thanks to youngsters from Blue Sky Theatre.

The Sun Has Got His Hat On brings the stories and rhythms of the Caribbean, along with colourful animal puppets from land, sea and sky in a sway-along, bounce-along, sing-a-long extravaganza of musical storytelling.

It's aimed at young children but parents and grandparents will have fun too. It's on Wednesday, November 19 at 10.30am and 1pm.

■ Hip to the Hop, Colette's Entertainment School's show for 2008, takes place this Friday at 7.30pm and on Saturday at 2.30pm and 7.30pm.

Just like the Capulets against the Montagues, this is the story of two opposing sides. The talented students of Colette's will use both classical and up-to-date dancing and singing to give a new take on a classical tale. Tickets are going fast, with Saturday evening already sold out.

■ The proceeds of the Haverhill Silver Band's special concert with David Thornton, one of the finest euphonium players in the world and principal euphonium with the legendary Black Dyke Band, will be donated to Barnardo's.

The Barnardo's Brass Appeal is a unique fundraising initiative that aims to unite the musical heritage of Barnardo's with the brass band community throughout the UK.

Have a good night out and make a difference at the same time. It's on this Sunday at 7.30pm.

■ Come and enjoy a varied selection of performances including solo, duo and group artists from entrants up to the age of 18 from Haverhill and surrounding towns and villages. Those taking part in the Haverhill Performing Arts Festival will compete for awards and have the opportunity to receive feedback from a professional adjudicator.

Come along from Friday, November 21 to Sunday, November 23 from 9.30am to 6pm each day. Children under the age of 16 must be accompanied.

■ Based on the memoir of the journalist Toby Young, How to Lose Friends and Alienate People (15) is the hilarious account of the fall and rise of Sidney Young (Simon Pegg), a hapless English hack on the make in New York's media jungle. Also starring Kirsten Dunst, Gillian Anderson and Jeff Bridges, catch a performance on Monday, November 17 at 7.45pm.

■ Adapted from John Boyne's bestselling novel, The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas (12A) is an unforgettable tale of an unlikely friendship that forms between a German boy and a Jewish boy held captive in a concentration camp.

It screens on Wednesday, November 19 and Thursday, November 20 at 7.45pm and Monday, November 24 at 1.30pm.

■ For more details about the shows, or to book tickets, phone (01440) 714140 or go to www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

Citroen wins green award for light commercial range

■ CITROËN NEMO... van of the year.

CITROËN is building on its green light commercial vehicle (LCV) credentials with the UK launch of the new Berlingo 1.6i Dual Fuel (petrol/LPG) and the Nemo LX 1.4HDi SemoDrive vans (pictured left).

This latest move comes as Citroën celebrates winning the prestigious GreenFleet LCV Manufacturer of the Year 2009 award – while the Citroën Nemo also became International Van of the Year 2009 recently.

Robert Handy-side, Citroën's commercial vehicle operations manager, comments: "In today's tough marketplace Citroën has been independently recognised for setting the pace both environmentally and financially."

Euro-NCAP gets tough for future safety stars

EURO-NCAP has revealed details about car safety standards in the future – and says that without ESC (electronic stability control), the achievement of five stars will no longer be possible.

With the implementation of the new rating scheduled for 2009, vehicles tested by Euro-NCAP from this date will undergo a much tougher and more comprehensive assessment.

Euro-NCAP's new scheme will see the introduction of a new 5-star single overall vehicle safety rating replacing the current star ratings in use since 1997. This new star rating, Euro-NCAP believes, will provide the simplest and clearest advice to the consumer about the overall safety performance of his or her chosen vehicle.

The overall rating will be composed from scores achieved in four areas of assessment: Adult Occupant, Child Occupant, Pedestrian Protection and a new area, Safety Assist.

Safety Assist will allow Euro-NCAP to consider driver assistance systems and active safety technologies, which play an increasingly important role in an accident avoidance and injury mitigation. The new scheme provides Euro-NCAP with the means to actively drive safety forwards in critical areas, maximizing the potential impact on road casualty reduction on European roads.

Under the new scoring system, vehicles will need to do well in each area of assessment to achieve a good overall result. In particular, it will be impossible for a carmaker to achieve five stars in the tested vehicle without the standard fitment of electronic stability control (ESC) in the majority of variants sold.

Statistics reveal that ESC plays such a major role in reducing deaths on our roads, Euro NCAP believes no car should be able to achieve five stars without it. First results for vehicles tested under the new rating system will be released in February 2009. From this date, consumers should look out for the new overall Euro-NCAP star rating for their vehicle. This shows the car has been subject to a tougher assessment in the achievement of its final award.

Consumers interested in a particular area of assessment such as adult protection or child protection will still be able to compare different vehicles as the individual scores that make up the overall rating will also be available on Euro NCAP's website www.euroncap.com

■ Euro NCAP has also begun testing seats of vehicles crash tested in 2008 to gauge their performance in rear impact and whiplash protection. From 2009, this whiplash test will automatically be included as part of Euro-NCAP's first area of assessment Adult Occupant Protection.

■ VALUE FOR MONEY... the Dodge Journey.

Journey looks set to hold value well

THE new seven-seat Dodge Journey offers value for money in more ways than one.

As well as undercutting rivals on price, and offering bags of family-friendly kit as standard, experts from EurotaxGlass's predict that the Journey will be worth an impressive 41 per cent of its purchase price in three years time.

EurotaxGlass's – publisher of Glass's Guide – has predicted strong residual values for the new Dodge Journey compared to its competitors. The company's Market Intelligence Unit predicts that the Dodge Journey 2.0CRD SXT is likely to retain 41 per cent of its original price over a three-year and 60,000 mile period.

The Dodge comes with a 2.4-litre petrol engine or a 2.0-litre diesel engine. The diesel engine is available with a manual or dual-clutch automatic gearbox and returns up to 43.5mpg (combined).
